Homestay

A homestay means you live in the apartment of Barcelona locals. This may mean a family with a husband, wife, kids, or it could be a young husband and wife couple, or it may be an older woman living on her own. The benefit of living in a homestay is that you have a source of linguistic and cultural integration every day in your housing. Also, homestays include breakfast and dinner. Students have their own set of keys and are free to go in and out when they please.
