Proof of Financial Resources

Amount:
- The final balance of the bank statement or bank letter must be at least $25,000 USD.
- To bring dependents (husband/wife/daughter/son) to the U.S. with you, you must show an additional $5000 USD per dependent.
- The $25,000 USD must be liquid funds (cash), in a checking or savings account.
- We do not accept: stocks, capability/solvency statements, retirement funds, trust funds, bonds, retirement plans, or other forms of investments.

Date:
- Bank statements and bank letters must be dated within 6 months of application.
- That means the bank statement or bank letter was created within 6 months of the application. It does NOT mean the expiration date.

Format:
- Bank statements and bank letters must be in English.
- Bank statements and bank letters must be printed on the official letterhead/stationary of the bank.
- The currency must be listed.

Additional Documentation:
- Sponsors who are US citizens or permanent residents must also fill out and submit the I-134 form.
- If the U.S. citizen or permanent resident is the only sponsor:
  - On the I-134 form, look at #11. For #11, your sponsor must select “I intend”.
  - In the space below #11, your sponsor needs to write: “Tuition, other educational expenses, and living expenses.”
